HAITI RELIEF

Grim news was reported by Missionary Joe Worndle, who has been on the ground in Haiti since the earthquake, that over 150 church members died in the capital, Port-au-Prince, as they made their way to a Tuesday evening Bible Study. The group was headed to the Lamentin Church of Christ in Port-au-Prince when the 7.0 magnitude quake struck. Word continues to be received of the horrendous devastation suffered by the people of Haiti. Due to lack of adequate facilities it has been difficult to get sufficient emergency supplies to the survivors. However we know the need is going to grow as time goes on. The Missions Ministry has been in contact with the domestic disaster organizations in Nashville and have secure a reliable method of getting funds into the relief efforts. Feb. 7th has been selected as the day that WHCC members will be given the opportunity to support these efforts. A special contribution will be taken up at both morning services. Pray for the Haitians and give what you can. May God Bless and comfort those in need!
