As announced earlier a Spanish Mission Work has been established in the former Rosemont facility. Western Hills has become a part of this work which is presently under the oversight of the Greenwood Park congregation in Bowling Green, Kentucky. We are helping support Manuel Gonzales and his wife, Nancy. Manuel was born in Guatemala City and was baptized at age 14. He graduated from the Baxter Institute with a degree in Theology. He has done missionary work in Honduras, Columbia and many parts of Guatemala; served as full time youth minister for 4 yrs and helped established the congregation in Jutiapa Guatemala. He studied at the University of Mariano Galvez and taught at the Bible Institute of Central America in Guatemala City. Nancy was born in Nashville, TN. She grew up in the church and graduated from David Lipscomb with a degree in Elementary Education. Worked with the Mission Lazrus group in Honduras for 3 years. Worked assisting Manuel with the youth group and planting the church in Jutiapa. Worked developing Bible curriculum for children's ministry (Elementary School) for Pinares Iglesia de Cristo and providing this curriculum to churches all over Guatemala.
