DID YOU KNOW there are World Bible School students in over 200 countries? Literally, students can now be found in every nation on earth. As of now you can compare the country list of WBS students to the United Nations' list and mark off each and every country. This great achievement is due to the courses now being offered on the Internet.

FOCUS ON MISSIONS

Samuel Twumasi-Ankrah

President, Heritage Christian College

P.O. Box AN 6017

Accra, Ghana, West Africa

Samuel Twumasi-Ankrah serves as president of Heritage Christian College in Accra, Ghana, West Africa. He is married to Theresa and has three children, Rejoice, Kwame, and Blessing. Kwame is currently a freshman at ACU. HCC has 27 students this semester and has provided graduate evangelists to Ghana and eight other countries in Africa. HCC is overseen by the Elders of the Nsawam Road Church of Christ in Accra. Starting in October 2008 support for the college here in the US shifted from the Traverse City church in Michigan to the Heritage Christian College Foundation (HCCF) in Richardson, Texas under the oversight of the elders at the East Richardson Church of Christ. A major effort of the Heritage Christian College currently is to gain formal accreditation in Ghana in accord with the government's mandate. So far this is progressing satisfactorily. Besides teaching gospel preachers working with local congregations, Samuel makes short-term mission trips in between semesters. This past November he (along with Edward Owusu-Ansah) went to Northern Ghana to hold a preacher's seminar for some 31 local preachers. There is hope of establishing an adjunct preacher's school in that area under the tutelage of HCC.
